

Move On When Ready Textbook Policy

SUMMER 2016

As per the new Move on When Ready Act, effective July 1, 2015, the Georgia State University Perimeter College MOWR (Dual Enrollment and Early College) book policy has been updated to reflect the guidelines.

On April 30, 2015, Governor Deal signed Senate Bill (SB) 132 into law with an effective date of July 1, 2015. SB 132, also known as the 'Move on When Ready Act', streamlines the existing dual enrollment programs (Accel, HOPE Grant for dual enrollment, and Move on When Ready) into one program with one funding source. These guidelines are intended to supplement the program information provided in SB 132 and the Move on When Ready (MOWR) program regulations provided by the Georgia Student Finance Commission (GSFC).

Book Loan Program

Beginning fall 2015, the Georgia State University Perimeter College Bookstore will loan required textbooks to each student enrolled in the Move on When Ready (program each semester, with the agreement that the textbooks will be returned to Georgia State University Perimeter College at the end of each semester. You will need to bring the textbook check out form below with your class schedule listed.

ALL materials loaned (i.e. textbooks, lab manuals, digital codes, etc.) MUST be returned to the Georgia State University Perimeter College Bookstore between JULY 20TH and AUGUST 3rd.
Should students fail to return or damage the issued books, they will be assessed a fine of up to $75.00 or the cost of the book minus the book allowance, whichever is less.

Students who do not remit payment to Georgia State University Perimeter College will have a financial hold placed on their account. Having this hold on the student's account will prevent:

1. The student from registering for classes (if eligible) to Georgia State University Perimeter College;
2. The student from requesting any Georgia State University Perimeter College transcripts vital for future college applications.

All students and parents must sign below acknowledging an understanding of the new MOWR (Dual Enrollment and Early College) Textbook Policy prior to selecting books. This form should be completed during orientation. Failure to sign and return the form will result in the non-issuance of Georgia State University Perimeter College textbooks.

My signature below indicates that I understand the new state Move on When Ready (MOWR) Book Policy and will adhere to the policies set forth in this agreement. Failure to do so will result in the above consequences.
