Article XII
Point System

• SECTION 1. Purpose and function:
  1. All GaPCANS officers and members will receive points for their attendance/involvement in GaPCANS events. These points will be used to determine eligibility for payment of National and State convention fees by GaPCANS on behalf of the individual.

• SECTION 2. Determination for awarding points:
  1. Points should be tallied 1 point per hour. If an event last 1 hour and 35 minutes or more, it should go towards another point. If an event is less than thirty minutes, the person should get a point but if it is greater than 1 hour and less than 1 hour and 30 minutes, 1 point should still suffice. Setting up and cleaning up should be considered in the time spent at an event but driving to and from an event should not be tallied in the sum of the event time.
  2. Points will be granted for PCANS sponsored events, GPC sponsored events, events that directly impact the GPC College of Nursing, Board
Meetings. General Meetings and if someone is setting up for an event listed above and misses any of the meetings, then 2 points per lasting hour of the meeting should be granted to that individual as they are helping contribute to an event and should be deemed an excused absence while gaining points for contribution.

3. Scheduling, regular duties, spreading the word, gathering class participation, organization, time and effort towards the organization of an event should not count as points since some positions require more organization and student involvement than others and those individuals would be excluded as it would lie within the confines of their given positions thus negating the “fairness” of the point system.

4. Only events that are adopted, per word of mouth or suggestion by GaPCANS will constitute the earning of points and 2 or more members of GaPCANS must be in attendance of said event or volunteer experience to be considered an events tallied into the point system.

5. Meetings should count as 2 points per hour so that the point system ensures that involvement in GaPCANS is not limited to attending events and that attending scheduled meetings are more important to the contribution and continuance of the organization and student involvement in the organization.

6. In special circumstances, as determined by the members of the board, when a member goes above and beyond to the benefit of the community and/or other GaPCANS members the board will hold a vote to determine eligibility for points and number of points to be awarded.

SECTION 3. Documentation of points

1. Documentation of points earned will be the responsibility of the Community Service Director of GaPCANS.

2. In the event that the Community Service Director is unable to attend an event/volunteer experience/meeting, another board member in attendance will keep track of the GaPCANS members that are present at the event and report back to the Community Service Director for proper documentation. This responsibility will be delegated in the following order: Secretary, President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, Treasurer, Newsletter Director, BTN Director, Alternate.

Article XIII
