CHARGES

List the committee charges for the year and indicate the progress of each charge.

1. Promote Math Clubs and their activities at Clarkston, Decatur, and Dunwoody. Encourage the development of Math Teams and Math Clubs at Lawrenceville and Rockdale.

   Clarkston, Decatur, and Dunwoody continue to have Math Clubs and to send math teams to the Gainesville State College Math Tournament. This year Lawrenceville did send a team to the Gainesville State College Math Tournament.

   Clarkston Math Club advisor – Jackie Spann
   Decatur Math Club advisors – Ming Her and Sohayla Mohebbi
   Dunwoody Math Club advisors – Jessica Craig, Iason Rusodimos, and Barrett Walls
2. Coordinate the AMATYC Student Math League Tests for each campus.

A web site is posted each semester with date, time, and location on each campus where each round of the SML test would be given. It also listed dates, times, and room numbers for prep sessions on each campus. It also had links to the AMATYC SML web page and to old SML tests and solutions.

Fall 2005 test - 108 GPC students took it
Clarkston 2, Decatur 12, Dunwoody 34, Lville 37, Rockdale 23

GPC ranked #41 nationally out of 168 schools and ranked #1 in Southeast region out of 22 schools.

Spring 2006 test - 94 GPC students took it
Clarkston 14, Decatur 12, Dunwoody 4, Lville 55, Rockdale 9

GPC ranked #43 nationally out of 159 schools and ranked #2 in Southeast region out of 25 schools.

Both rounds - 12 students took both tests (Fall and Spring), 96 took Fall only, and 82 took Spring only.

GPC ranked #37 nationally out of 157 schools and tied for #1 in Southeast region with Durham Tech (out of 22 schools).

3. Encourage and coordinate involvement in the Gainesville College Math Tournament.

This year 4 campuses send teams to the Gainesville State College Math Tournament - Clarkston, Decatur, Dunwoody, and Lawrenceville (first time).

22 GPC students participated:
Clarkston 8 students, coach Alice Pierce, Math Club advisor Jackie Spann
Decatur 5 students and Math Club advisor Ming Her.
Dunwoody 6 students and Math Club advisors Jason Rusodimos and Barrett Walls.
Lawrenceville 3 students and coach Tom Cooper.

The tournament has 2 parts. In the morning, students took a 90-minute multiple choice calculus test and compete as individuals. Out of 72 participants, Jackson Tanis (Dunwoody) had the highest score on the test, #12 was Sangheon Kim (Dunwoody), and #17 was Jessica Kamal (Dunwoody) and Phouc Nguyen (Lville).

After lunch, problems are solved in groups (Clarkston and Dunwoody each had 2 teams, and Decatur and Lville each had one team).
Out of 20 teams, Dunwoody Team2 came in 4th place and Lville came in 8th.
The overall winner was Catawba Valley CC, 2nd was Wake Tech, and GPC placed 3rd (combo of morning and afternoon scores)

4. Coordinate the selection process for the F. Lane Hardy scholarship.

   16 students applied. The winner was Salim Toukou Rou of Dunwoody.

   2 students were nominated. The winner was ShaCourtney Jackson of Decatur.

6. Continue sharing ideas for student activities and speakers.

   Dunwoody was very good about publicizing their M.C. Escher event. Clarkston invited all students to their Career/Transfer Fair

7. Assist Math Conference Committee in selecting a deserving student for the $250 honorarium scholarship. (This scholarship came about several years ago when keynote speaker Susan Wood donated her $250 honorarium back to GPC).

   The committee did not work on this charge.

List any committee specific charges for the next academic year.
